Weddings

THE CORINTHIAN
CLUB

It may seem like life has been on pause for a little while, but it is time to press play on your big day, and here at The Corinthian we are working hard to ensure your wedding doesn't have to be on hold.

The jewel in Glasgow's crown, The Corinthian Club is the quintessential cosmopolitan city centre wedding venue, and is renowned for its many lavish rooms which host celebrations of all sizes. But did you know we have a whole host of beautifully appointed spaces which are perfect for "micro weddings"? You can opt for the rustic hunting lodge charm of Lairds, or choose instead the understated elegance of The Skean Dhu, but whatever you choose, you can expect the same level of service and attention to detail which we are known for. Just a few moments' walk from Glasgow's City Chambers, we are also situated within strolling distance from all major transport links, making us the ideal spot for your city centre wedding.

You can find within this brochure the details for our new packages which have been created with petite weddings in mind, and would be delighted to discuss these or perhaps a bespoke offer with you.

To arrange a show round, please get in touch on 0141 552 1101 or email weddings@thecorinthianclub.co.uk

“It's taken us a week to come back down to earth after the wedding high but we really wanted to say thank you for making our day THE BEST EVER.

I had spent weeks and weeks searching through recommendations from friends, Googling, searching Instagram and looking at over 20 venues. When I met you I instinctively trusted that you would do all you could to help and you certainly did.

From all of our suppliers you were the most professional throughout and made the whole experience completely stress free. I work with so many exceptional event managers and I know that I expect the best and have high standards and you absolutely met and exceeded them, thank you.

You were so easy to work with and a calming influence. I always felt like you understood our vision and were working with us to make it possible. On the day itself you made me feel so relaxed as if everything was taken care of and I even managed to get out of event mode (which is a first!).

Thank you again. You are the best.

*Much love,
The Galloway's*

OUR SPACES

THE SKEAN DHU

Totally private and one of our most recently refurbished areas, The Skean Dhu and the smaller Sporrán room located next door are perfect for those looking for a sophisticated and neutral backdrop to their big day. Featuring wood panelling, parquet flooring and lots of natural light, it is our most popular space for smaller weddings. This room also benefits from exiting out on to an exclusive use mezzanine area which overlooks the atmospheric Flying Scotsman light installation.

This room can seat up to 32 guests.

LAIRDS

Tucked away off of the main staircase, Laird's offers an intimate space for private dining celebrations and is packed with rustic charm and warm and welcoming wood panelling and candlelight on a boardroom style table.

This room can seat up to 16 guests.

LANGLEY

Situated on the second floor of The Corinthian Club overlooking Ingram Street is the Langley, featuring impressive wall art sympathetic to the Corinthian's surroundings in the Merchant City; a commission by Adrian McMurtrie. This room is a little more spacious, meaning you have full flexibility over a tableplan which suits you.

This room can sit up to 50 guests.

BOUTIQUE BAR

Boutique Bar has a bespoke design, with mirrored finishing's and pastel floral arrangements throughout. This stylish, glamorous space sits at the front of the building and benefits from lots of natural light with a great view of the City Centre.

This room can seat up to 40 guests.

MERCER

This atmospheric room is decked out in floor to ceiling wood panelling and benefits from it's own bar facility. This room also benefits from natural light, making it a highly flexible option from couples.

This room can seat up to 60 guests.
